Jeff “Odie” Espenship Introduction

Our guest speaker is Jeff “Odie” Espenship

Odie’s company directly targets leadership and employee groups to create and maintain a culture of operational excellence in the workplace.

Odie’s background in operational excellence began as an Air Force fighter pilot, flight leader, instructor pilot. The successes and failures Odie has learned flying high performance jets can be applied directly to the “fighter pilots” of

_____

(Insert your company name)

Although Odie no longer flies in the military, he continues to hone his flight skills as an international captain on the Airbus A350 for a major airline based in Atlanta, Georgia. Odie’s Target Leadership message has been delivered to more than 200 companies and organizations over the last 23 years. He has become a world renowned speaker of the highest magnitude; his keynotes are now sought by every industry in the country. He also writes his own introductions.

Ladies and Gentlemen, please welcome Jeff “Odie” Espenship